 - See my blog/videos at:
<http://www.roomtoread.org/the-latest/at-the-end-of-the-day-were-all-just-teenage-girls>
 - Ten Days work in the field (in Tanzania) interviewing girls in the education program
- Days For Girls: Days for Girls is an organization that's mission is to provide girls in impoverished locations with menstrual sanitary care. As an officer and cofounder of my school's branch of this club, it is my responsibility to hand make reusable pads to send to third world countries. On top of giving my time solely for making the product, my duties further include raising money in order to buy necessary materials as well as simply educating people about our goal.
- National Honor Society
 - Sophomore through Senior year of high school did volunteer work with NHS such as weekly tutoring.

Extracurricular Activities:

- COSA Musical Theatre Conservatory

- Freshman and Sophomore year of highschool took daily intensives in acting, singing, theatre history, and multiple forms of dance.
- Academic League
 - All years of high school took part in an exclusive, invite-only academic team that competes against other schools in rigorous trivia.
- Associative Student Body
 - Appointee Junior and Senior Year
